

Corals to Classrooms

July 11-12, 2006

9 a.m.-5:30 p.m.

Galveston, TX

Workshop Activities:

- Informative presentations and activities about the Flower Garden Banks NMS, coral reef biology, natural and human impacts on coral reefs, research in the sanctuary, resource management, etc.
- Reef fish identification course with field trip to Moody Gardens
- Networking with workshop presenters, alumni and other participants
- Development of action plans to incorporate new knowledge and skills into classroom

Post-Workshop Activities:

- Workshop evaluation
- Post-test
- Thank you notes to workshop sponsors (optional)
- Implementation of action plans and follow-up summary to sanctuary

$50 Workshop Tuition Includes:

- Continental breakfast, lunch and snacks daily
- Reef Environmental Education Foundation (REEF) fish identification course
- Admission to the Aquarium at Moody Gardens
- All presentation and activity sessions
- Teaching tools and resources

Other possible costs:

- Travel to and from Galveston, TX
- Hotel before, during or after workshop if you decide to stay in Galveston rather than commute

How to apply:

- Download or request a registration form
- Send completed registration with payment to:

Attn: Education Workshop
Flower Garden Banks NMS
4700 Avenue U
Galveston, TX 77551

or Fax: 409-766-3489

or E-mail: kelly.drinnen@noaa.gov

Registrations must be received by close of business June 30, 2006.

Questions?

Contact Kelly Drinnen at 409-766-3572, 409-789-8144 or kelly.drinnen@noaa.gov